I, Zechariah Gros of Scarborough State of Maine of twenty five years of Age, do testify & say that I never deserted the Army, never had a furlough, nor ever left my Post or station during the three years for which I enlisted & served; nor did ever know or hear until now, of any report being circulated that I was dead. Therefore any explanation is utterly out of my power nor do I recollect any circumstance from which such report could have arisen, except that one Pilgrimage Gros did dye there, a soldier. -
